

Notice Informing Individuals Regarding Nondiscrimination and Accessibility Requirements and Discrimination is Against the Law

Laurel View Village complies with applicable Federal civil rights laws and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex. Laurel View Village does not exclude people or treat them differently because of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex.

Laurel View Village provides free aids and services to people with disabilities to communicate effectively with us, such as qualified sign language interpreters. Free language services can be provided to people whose primary language is not English, such as qualified interpreters. If you need these services, please contact Doug Croyle, Civil Rights Coordinator.

If you believe that Laurel View Village has failed to provide these services or discriminated in another way on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex, you can file a grievance in person or by mail, fax, or email with:
